Analysis Results

Predicted Event: roadaccidents

Confidence: 95.00%

Event Summary: The surveillance video initially depicts a typical busy urban street scene with numerous pedestrians moving along sidewalks and vehicles driving on the adjacent road. This ordinary activity is abruptly interrupted by a major incident where a large vehicle, identified as a bus, overturns on its side in the street, generating a cloud of dust or smoke. Following this, a person is seen lying on the ground in the street, indicating their involvement in the road incident, amidst the surrounding pedestrians.
