Predicted Event: roadaccidents

Confidence: 98.00%

Event Summary: The surveillance video documents a serious road accident on a busy city street. It begins by showing a typical urban environment with pedestrians on sidewalks and vehicles in motion. The scene then focuses on a pedestrian at the edge of the road as a dark car passes. This culminates in a dramatic incident where a large vehicle, possibly a bus, overturns amidst dust and smoke. The immediate aftermath depicts a person lying on the ground surrounded by debris, with numerous pedestrians observing the unfolded catastrophe.
