Predicted Event: roadaccidents

Confidence: 99.00%

Event Summary: The overall event depicts a traffic incident that began at an intersection with a large truck making a dangerous right turn, placing a motorcycle perilously close within its turning path, while a red car also navigated the area, creating multiple points of potential conflict. This ultimately led to a road accident, the immediate aftermath of which shows an intersection with a damaged white car (featuring front-end damage and a cracked/shattered windshield), an overturned motorcycle, and scattered debris. Several individuals are seen lying on the ground or gathered at the scene, indicating injuries and the gravity of the incident.
